Knotted: Marriage and Relationships

What is God's plan for marriage?

1. That marriage would be _____ on God.

Why do marriages need to be centered on God?

1. Because God is the _____ of the marriage relationship.

What specifics does the bible give about marriage?

1. Marriage is reserved for one _____ and one _____.

What are God's purposes for marriage?

- 1. To provide a _____.
- 2. To build a _____ and have _____.
- 3. To be a _____ that points to a _____ with God.

Take a moment to review the Bible verses and message notes from Sunday. What stands out to you as important or helpful as you reflect on those passages and what was said?

Besides God, what are some things people focus on to have successful relationship? Are those same pursuits found in the context of marriage?

Why won't those things bring them the success they are searching for within those relationships, including marriage?

Describe something you have created. It can be as simple as a drawing or as complex as a computer program. Why did you create it? What purpose does it serve?

How would you respond to someone else redefining your creation and perhaps using it for something harmful or in a way that would bring dishonor to you?

Read Mark 10:6-9

Who created marriage? How do you think God feels when He watches our society redefine what He has created and use marriage in ways He never intended?

Read 1 Peter 3:15, Ephesians 4:15, and 2 Timothy 2:24-26

How should we respond when we face a situation where a redefinition of marriage is taking place?

Read Ecclesiastes 4:9-12

What encourages you most from this section of scripture?

Read Psalm 127:3-5

Why do you think children are a reward from God?
How can a healthy marriage or strong extended family benefit a child?

In what ways have you seen your marriage point you towards God? If you are single, which relationships that you are in help you see God more clearly and why?

Pray and thank God for His plans and design for all of our relationships. Ask God to help you have God-centered marriages and friendships.
