A Kingdom Upside Down - Righteous Attitudes

Scripture: Matthew 5:7-10

We give _____ because we have _____ mercy.

We gain a _____ heart when we _____ it to God.

We strive to be like _____, so we can be called _____ of God.

Persecution _____ when God's _____ is our focus.

Supporting Scripture:

Psalms 139:23, Isaiah 9:6, Luke 2:14, Matthew 18:15-18, Revelation 21:1-4

Challenge: Read through Matthew 5:3-10 this week.

While you read, listen for God's heart and ask Him to mold your heart to look more like His.

1. Why will we grow in mercy as we grow in knowing Christ?

2. How can you express purity in your own life?

3. What are some places in your sphere of influence where peacemaking is needed?

How could you be a reconciling influence there?

4. Why is it important to distinguish between being persecuted for having an abrasive attitude versus being persecuted for righteousness?

Do you think you have ever claimed the latter when it was really your attitude at fault?

5. Why do you think we naturally focus on the externals so much?

6. What are some ways we can help ourselves focus on the internals?
